MEDICAL AND FAMILY LEAVE OF ABSENCE FACTS

What family and medical leaves of absence are available to employees of the Board of Education?

The Board's Family and Medical Leave Act policy entitles eligible employees to leaves of absence for:

- Their own serious illness.
- The serious illness of a child, spouse or parent.
- The birth, adoption, or foster care placement of a child and the care of a child within the first 12 months.
- The qualifying exigency relating to a spouse, son, daughter or parent in the military who is notified of an impending call/order of active duty.
- The serious injury or illness of a covered family member in the military.
- The Board's Supplemental Family and Medical Leave policy entitles certain categories of eligible employees to additional leaves of absence for the same reasons.

- Additional or supplemental leaves of absence run concurrently with FMLA leaves. In order to take an additional or supplemental leave, you must qualify for FMLA.

- To determine whether you may be entitled to a supplemental or additional leave of absence, go to the Supplemental and Family Medical Leave Policy at <http://policy.cps.k12.il.us/documents/513.3.pdf>.

What does the FMLA guarantee?

- 12 weeks of unpaid leave.
- No loss of seniority or benefits.
- Return to the same or an equivalent position.

Who is eligible to apply for a leave under the FMLA and the Rules of the Board of Education?

- Any employee who has been employed for 12 months and who has worked 1,250 hours in the preceding 12 months.

Who must apply for a personal or family medical leave of absence?

- Any employee who is absent for more than 10 consecutive days due to personal illness or the serious illness of a family member.
- Employees on workers' compensation or assault leave.
- Any employee who is absent for more than 10 consecutive days due to the serious illness or injury of a military family member or for a qualifying exigency caused by a call to active duty for a military family member.

Must I use accrued sick and vacation time while I am on leave?

- Employees must use accrued sick and vacation time while on FMLA.

How may I apply for a family or medical leave of absence?

- Complete the attached FMLA Application form and have your health care provider complete the accompanying Department of Labor Certification for Serious Injury or Illness of Covered Servicemember for Military Family Leave.
- Mail, fax or hand-deliver your completed application to Employee Services at the address listed on the top of the page.

How may I return to work at the end of my leave?

- Report to Employee Services in person to complete the Medical Reinstatement to Work form and obtain a return to work letter.

Expires: 12/31/2011

Notice to the EMPLOYER INSTRUCTIONS to the EMPLOYER: The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) provides that an employer may require an employee seeking FMLA leave due to a serious injury or illness of a covered servicemember to submit a certification providing sufficient facts to support the request for leave. Your response is voluntary. While you are not required to use this form, you may not ask the employee to provide more information than allowed under the FMLA regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 825.310. Employers must generally maintain records and documents relating to medical certifications, recertifications, or medical histories of employees or employees' family members, created for FMLA purposes as confidential medical records in separate files/records from the usual personnel files and in accordance with 29 C.F.R. § 1630.14(c)(1), if the Americans with Disabilities Act applies.

SECTION I: For Completion by the EMPLOYEE and/or the COVERED SERVICEMEMBER for whom the Employee Is Requesting Leave INSTRUCTIONS to the EMPLOYEE or COVERED SERVICEMEMBER: Please complete Section I before having Section II completed. The FMLA permits an employer to require that an employee submit a timely, complete, and sufficient certification to support a request for FMLA leave due to a serious injury or illness of a covered servicemember. If requested by the employer, your response is required to obtain or retain the benefit of FMLA-protected leave. 29 U.S.C. §§ 2613, 2614(c)(3). Failure to do so may result in a denial of an employee's FMLA request. 29 C.F.R. § 825.310(f). The employer must give an employee at least 15 calendar days to return this form to the employer.

SECTION II: For Completion by a UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE ("DOD") HEALTH CARE PROVIDER or a HEALTH CARE PROVIDER who is either: (1) a United States Department of Veterans Affairs ("VA") health care provider; (2) a DOD TRICARE network authorized private health care provider; or (3) a DOD non-network TRICARE authorized private health care provider INSTRUCTIONS to the HEALTH CARE PROVIDER: The employee listed on Page 2 has requested leave under the FMLA to care for a family member who is a member of the Regular Armed Forces, the National Guard, or the Reserves who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list for a serious injury or illness. For purposes of FMLA leave, a serious injury or illness is one that was incurred in the line of duty on active duty that may render the servicemember medically unfit to perform the duties of his or her office, grade, rank, or rating.

A complete and sufficient certification to support a request for FMLA leave due to a covered servicemember's serious injury or illness includes written documentation confirming that the covered servicemember's injury or illness was incurred in the line of duty on active duty and that the covered servicemember is undergoing treatment for such injury or illness by a health care provider listed above. Answer, fully and completely, all applicable parts. Several questions seek a response as to the frequency or duration of a condition, treatment, etc. Your answer should be your best estimate based upon your medical knowledge, experience, and examination of the patient. Be as specific as you can; terms such as "lifetime," "unknown," or "indeterminate" may not be sufficient to determine FMLA coverage. Limit your responses to the condition for which the employee is seeking leave.
